

Committed to delivering good journalism and to promoting freedom of the press

Mission

- To feature independent & unbiased journalism.
 - To help people make sound business decisions based on trusted content.
 - To inspire leadership, social responsibility & correct business practices.
 - To address conflict resolution and peace building processes.
 - To communicate messages of sustainable living and awareness.
 - To maintain a credible brand culture.

Objectives

To create a news platform for leaders, experts and specialties who wish to voice their views and expertise on prevailing issues of national and global interest.

Content Identity

The Cyprus Mail aspires to develop a strong international information platform for leaders and industry experts to air their views in relation to social, economic and political scenarios. Furthermore, the Cyprus Mail provides an independent forum for economic, social, business and political discourse. It covers daily news as it happens and presents a wide-reaching reflection of what happens each day in the print edition.

Vision

The newspaper aims to act as a contemporary mouthpiece in promoting freedom of the press and to be widely recognised as a trusted quality, international media platform

SundayMail

The content includes in-depth reporting and expert opinions. Interviews with leaders, analysts and inspirational personalities, who share their views, predictions and stories, are regular features. In addition, the life-style supplement Living looks at the lighter side of life with features, reviews and interviews.

Special Editions

The Cyprus Mail and Sunday Mail carry regular special themed editions to inform readers about specific industry sector trends, prospects and future developments. The Special Editions feature content, which is researched and reported from less common reporting angles, attracting readers to learn about less-featured and emerging topics of interest within the specific industry.

International media sites that trust and mention the CyprusMail

The Cyprus Mail has succeeded in driving more traffic to its website through the daily Newsletter to its subscribers and through its new virtual platforms and special projects

The Cyprus Mail is targeted to reaching business executives, members of the diplomatic community, local and foreign investors, high net-worth individuals and executives, and to people who are interested in national and international, social, economic, business and political news and developments.
